

FRIENDS OF HISTORIC ALBANY LIST OF PRESERVATION RESOURCES

PRESERVATION RESOURCES

CITY OF ALBANY

Community Development Department, 333 Broadalbin St. SW, 541-917-7560

- Historic Preservation Website: <https://www.cityofalbany.net/cd/historic>
- Folders on each inventoried historic property including the survey/inventory form and, sometimes, more history and pictures.
- Sanborn Fire Maps available for viewing.
- Old city directories available for viewing.
- Brochure on how to research the history of your home.
- Handouts on “how to” do a variety of repairs, weatherization, etc.

Carnegie Library

- Many shelves of historic preservation-related materials.
- Binders with information on each inventoried historic property including the survey/inventory form.
- Sanborn Fire Maps available for viewing.
- Old city directories available for viewing.
- Brochure on how to research the history of your home.

ALBANY REGIONAL MUSEUM

- Helpful volunteers knowledgeable about Albany’s history.
- Robert Potts Remembering When photographic books available for sale or review.
- Old city directories available for viewing.

STATE HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICE (SHPO)

Your first contact for:

- National Register nominations.
- Special Assessment Program (15-year property value freeze for taxes).
- Federal Tax Credits for income-producing properties and much more.
- SHPO’s website: <https://www.oregon.gov/oprd/oh/pages/default.aspx>

RESTORE OREGON

- Directory of preservation service providers: <https://restoreoregon.org/business-member-directory-2/>

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

- Link to Sanborn Fire Insurance maps: <https://www.loc.gov/rr/geogmap/sanborn/>