PURPOSE OF THE ORDINANCE

The purpose of the ordinance is to allow the City of Albany to relieve downtown congestion, install traffic lights, street lights, railroad crossing and other public safety devices and improvements in the downtown area; and to make it possible to undertake and pay for such improvements that are necessary to the safety, health and welfare of the citizens through a self-liquidating finance method which does not impose city-wide special property tax levies or city-wide bonding payments on residential or other property owners outside the downtown service area development district.

Shall the City of Albany adopt an Ordinance approving the service area development project for the City of Albany, Oregon, as promulgated under Chapter 457 of the Oregon Revised Statutes?
